Foreword

Within these pages have been captured forever your memories of a final year at Essex High. Here is a glimpse of the conviviality, the spirit of togetherness, the animation of learning, the lingering friendships, the fun of living, the warmth and richness of a year past. Here is an intimation of the spirit of competition, the acceptance of responsibility, and the active participation that compound your activities. Your laughter, your dreams, your youthful enthusiasm tempered by your quest of knowledge and your growing maturity have molded this book. Your lofty ideals have aimed its purpose high. Here is seen the sparkle of life that mirrors the glow of personality. May you find your present joys and your future hopes expressed in these pages.

To Our Parents

TO OUR PARENTS

When all our other debts are paid
Our greatest debt will still be due
For sacrifices you have made
And cares that we have brought to you.

We have been slow to understand the patience and the love and pride
With which for our sakes you have planned,
Your own ambitions put aside.

When others have withheld from us
The praise that we have longed to hear
You, Dad and Mom, have been generous
And glad to speak the word of cheer.

With eager efforts you have sought
To smooth our paths and make them fair;
Unselfishly expecting naught
In payment for your tender care.

We have been slow to learn, but now,
With recollections that are sweet,
We weave a laurel for your brow
And lay our tribute at your feet.

“Knowledge Crowns Those Who Seek Her”

ALMA MATER

Oh Essex brave, dear Essex true,
With earnest hearts we pledge to you
Our pride, our love, our loyalty
Through endless day and to destiny.

Chorus . . .

Oh Essex grave, dear Essex free
Oh Essex is the place for me
When it is time for me to die
Just bring me here and let me lie.

We know you can never fail us
And we shall never fail you
For you we sing, Oh Essex true,
We had great victory always for you.

Dedication—1966 Tiger

Every young adult needs someone who serves as a guide and example in the uncertainty and decision-making of early adulthood.

For your knowledge-

For your understanding-

For your interest-

For your responsiveness and dependability-

For your guidance-

For your honesty-

For your sincerity-

For your love of truth-

We thank you and dedicate the 1966 "Tiger" to you, our class sponsor, Mr. Ronald Jordan.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is a great privilege through this yearbook to express my congratulations to the yearbook staff, the class of '66 and its sponsors for the accomplishments of a tremendous task. My sincere appreciation, also, is extended for the manner in which the class has conducted itself throughout its years in school. Cooperation, perseverance, dignity, intelligence and dedication have characterized this class and its activities. For this, the class of 1966 will long be remembered and revered.

It is hoped that each of the members of the class of 1966 will aspire to the greatest goal that his ability will permit. We invite each to join the ranks of the many other graduates of Essex High who are now making a contribution for a better world.

CLASS POEM

Oh, Essex Brave, Dear Essex true
With sadden hearts we are leaving you.
There is sorrow and grief you should know
But the future calls us and we must go.

Oh, Dear teachers and principal too,
We owe a great vote of thanks to you
For the tasks you have successfully done
Were done in the interest of everyone.

The years have slowly passed us by
But our love for Essex will never die.
A school full of love and conscious free
It's the school that is perfect for you and me.

Although we are leaving, it's in our hearts,
To return to the place where we got our starts.
Oh, Essex the school that will always be Remembered and loved until eternity.

Class Will

We, the class of 1966, Town of Tappahannock, County of Essex, State of Virginia, being of sound mental condition, do make this our last will and testament rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary optimism. In this matter do we dispose of our possessions. To our principal we give and bequeath a sense of relief that we have at last graduated, pleasant memories of our four years together, and a feeling of pride in any great deeds or noteworthy achievements that our future may contain, realizing that such glories will owe much to his example and counsel.

To our class sponsors we leave our sincere thanks for their laboring with us, even when the most talkative in the class was talking, the most disagreeable in the class was disagreeing and the most cooperative was cooperating, they stood by us until the end.

To our teachers we bequeath our very warmest regards and our sincere gratitude for their unfailing kindness and aid.

We leave to the Juniors our good luck. It made us what we are today and it should satisfy them. We also give reluctantly but of necessity our Mantle of Dignity. We realize that the class can never fill it but since it is expected of them our advise is "Grin and Wear It".

To our good friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience. It will be found, useful as the only means by which they can endure the Juniors.

To the young and unsophisticated Freshmen we leave a map of the school building so that they will not get lost and roam about in everybody's way, looking for their classroom. We include with the map, our little book entitled "How to Make High School a Success".

The smaller individual bequests are as follows:

To the basketball team of the future we leave the privilege of gazing at the trophies our boys won.

To the Choral club and band our ability to watch the leader, and audience at the same time without losing a measure or skipping a beat.

To the dramatic club the ability to act like our talented actors and actresses.

INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS

- I, Martha Baylor, do bequeath to my sister, Frances, my seat in typing.
- I, Shirley Blagmon, leave my pleasant ways to Clara and Carolyn Blagmon.
- I, Charlotte Burton, leave my seat in Government class to anyone who wants it.
- I, Barbara Bundy, do bequeath my ability to sing tenor in the school choir to Maurice Gaines.
- I, Connie Baxter, do bequeath my ability to get along with people to my sisters Diana and Rosalind.

- I, Myrtle Corbin, leave my ability to get along with others to Donna Broadus.
- I, Faye Coleman, do bequeath my ability to get in choir on time to Charlie Jones.
- I, Darlene Wilson Fortune, leave my seat in the senior class to my brothers.
- I, Theresa Ann Gray, leave my ability to be cool and calm at all times to Beverly Ann Scott.
- I, Ruth Gardner, leave my nice ways to Queen Gardner.
- I, Mary Gray, leave my girlish figure to Ella Roane.
- I, Ella Gardner, leave my lady like walk to Gloria Gardner.
- I, Louise Gaines, bequeath my charming ways to my sister, Alma.
- I, Bertha Louise Henry, do bequeath my friendly smile to Gloria Redman.
- I, Dorothy Hill, leave my ability to attend school regularly to Judy Hill and Mildred Muse.
- I, Antonette Holmes, leave my slimness to Deborah Holmes.
- I, Sandra Jackson, leave my seat in Geometry class to my cousin, Ettra Jackson.

"The Crystal Ball"

This is the Crystal Ball in it lies the future of all the members of the senior class of 1966. As the mist clears away we see what the future holds for each one in the class.

Shirley Blagmon is holding a conference at a large corporation of which she is the head, and also there in the next room is James Greene, the janitor. Rosalind Nelson is married to John Sutton who still drives the Essex High School bus. Phyllis Richardson, Gladys Johnson, and Faye Coleman are singing for the Metropolitan Opera. Performing with the Barnum and Bailey Circus are the midget, Bertha Henry, William Greene, the strong man, and the head clown, Wendell Holmes. Mary Gray is the head dietician at Tidewater Memorial Hospital. Lloyd Smith, accompanied by Charlyne Jackson is having an unlimited engagement at Carnegie Hall. In New York, Allen Baytop, an outstanding dentist, is married to Barbara Bundy, who is also his able assistant. Also in New York are Lloyd Saunders, the Mayor, and Lillian Carter, his private secretary. At Essex High Lois Richardson has replaced Mr. Jordan in the music department and Elliott Young is head coach. William Young plays for the Baltimore Bullets and Wesley Johnson is manager of the Minnesota Twins. At Norfolk State College Diane Pitts is head of the Home Economics Department and Herbert Hutchinson is the basketball coach. Doris Richardson is President of U.C.L.A., where Dorothy Hill teaches Physical Education to girls. Shirley Cauthrone and Everette Gray are doing research on the moon in a space ship designed by Theresa Gray and Adeline Bundy. Back in New York, Sandra Jackson and Jean Wright are the head models at a large fashion agency. Antionette Holmes has won the 1970 Miss America Contest. Mildred Lumpkin and Darlene Fortune are co-owners of their own Beauty Salon. In Tappahannock, Martha Baylor is the assistant manager of Anderton's Department Store, where Wayne Gray is the manager. Ruth and Ella Gardner have a chain of supermarkets across the country. Mary Taylor is in Beverly Hills cutting down on her calories, and is now wearing a size 10 dress. Living on a large farm is Janice Jones who has 10 children. Brenda Washington is secretary to the President of the United States. Elsie Pollard and Joseph Pollard are married and living in Florida. William Jeter is writing a comic strip for the New York Times, of which Mac Arthur Fortune is the Editor-in-chief. Rosa Smith is the upstairs maid for the big tycoon, Myrtle Corbin. A cloud forms and covers the Crystal Ball and all is black. We have seen what lies in the future for the graduating class of 1966. From what we have seen we wish them much luck.

The Tiger Staff

The 1966 Tiger may well be said to be another outstanding product of Essex High School. To be sure the job was no easy one and many hours of fun and hard work is throughout its layout.

This year's Tiger is new in several ways: the seal of the school is being used as a cover design, introducing color for the end sheets, bigger size and other new attractions that have enhanced its beauty.

At periodical work sessions you find the staff members laboring over layouts, sorting pictures, taking pictures, and doing other jobs which have been fun, rewarding, and we hope worthwhile.

Class History

A slight look at our prosperous and happy past at Essex will enlighten your hearts and ours as we record it.

We entered the doors of Essex High School in September 1961 as very excited eighth graders. Mr. Cary, our principal, spoke some kind words to us to sort of relax us, and to introduce us to our sponsors, who were Miss Francino Anderson and Mr. Ronald Jordan. Our class was divided into sections A and B. The class officers for section A were: Phyllis Richardson - President, Doris Banks - Vice-President, Louise Gaines - Treasurer, Sandra Jackson - Secretary and James Greene - Chaplain. The class officers for section B were: Martha Baylor - President, Adeline Bundy - Vice-President, Wendell Holmes - Treasurer and Antionette Holmes - Chaplain.

Our freshman year began with a bang! Again our class was divided. Our sponsors were Mr. Eulas Gaddy and Mr. Willard Bailey. The officers for section A were: Charlotte Burton - President, Vernell Taylor - Vice-President, Sandra Jackson - Secretary, Shirley Blagmon - Treasurer, and Faye Coleman - Chaplain. The officers for section B were: Myrtle Corbin - President, Everett Gray - Vice-President, Mary Gray - Secretary, Janice Jones - Treasurer, and Elliott Young - Chaplain. During this year many achieved many honors. Some of our students were chosen for the National Honor Society, among them were: Charlotte Burton, Shirley Blagmon, Faye Coleman, Connie Baxter, Phyllis Richardson, Janice Jones, and Vernell Taylor. Many of our students entered the Science and Math Contest with the careful guidance of Mr. Joseph Faulk and Mr. Gaddy, and won places in the contests. These were Lloyd Smith, Doris Banks, Lois Richardson, Charlotte Burton, and Phyllis Richardson. Some of our more athletic girls won the Intramural Championship for Basketball, among these were Lois Richardson, Connie Baxter, Barbara Bundy, and Antionette Holmes.

Our sophomore year we were even more enthusiastically proving ourselves to be outstanding student. Our sponsors for this year were Miss Mary Cox and Mr. Daniel Bates. The officers for section A were: Connie Baxter - President, Lois Richardson - Vice-President, Doris Richardson - Secretary, Rosalind Nelson - Treasurer, and Gladys Johnson - Chaplain. The officers for section B were: Shirley Blagmon - President, Brenda Washington - Vice-President, Elsie Pollard - Secretary, Alexander Monk - Treasurer, and William Jeter - Chaplain. Some of our boys did wonderful in the field of sports, especially basketball; among these were: William Young, Everett Gray, Wayne Gray, Herbert Hutchinson, and Alexander Monk; in baseball John Sutton, Allen Baytop, and William Greene. During this year two of our members were fortunate enough to compete in the Virginia State tournament; they were Elliott Young and William Young. In Science Phyllis Richardson won second place in Biology. Charlotte Burton won first place in Algebra I. Shirley Blagmon participated in Typing I.

Our junior class was filled with pride for we had achieved so much in such a short time. Our sponsors were Miss Vincent Ealy and Mr. Ronald Jordan. This year our class officers were combined, they were: Allen Baytop - President, Sandra Jackson - Vice-President, Barbara Bundy - Secretary, Charlotte Burton - Assistant Secretary, Shirley Blagmon - Treasurer, and James Greene - Chaplain. During this year a few of our students were elected as Student Council Officers: Allen Baytop - Vice-President, Shirley Blagmon - Treasurer, James Green - Chaplain, Sandra Jackson - Secretary, Parliamentarian - Phyllis Richardson. Our junior year was brought to a beautiful close by our Junior Prom. Our prom was the first one to have been done by an interior decorator. Our theme was Paris By Starlight. The music was furnished by the Dynamic Checkmates of Washington, D. C.

At last we entered into our Senior year. Everyone was full of great expectations and excitement. Our senior class was combined. Mrs. Essie McDaniel and Mr. Ronald Jordan were our sponsors. Our senior officers were: Lloyd Smith - President, Lois Richardson - Vice-President, Sandra Jackson - Secretary, Barbara Bundy - Assistant Secretary, Shirley Blagmon - Treasurer, and James Greene - Chaplain. Shirley Blagmon was elected Miss Senior of 65-66.

Although our four years at Essex High School were short, we have had many happy experiences, and made acquaintances that will remain a part of us forever. As we leave our school it is not with regret that we say "Good-bye", but we wish to express our gratitude for its affording us the four happiest years of our lives.

Phyllis Richardson,

Historian

CLASS SONG (Tune: "In The Gloaming")

We the Seniors of Dear Essex,
Striving hard to reach our goals.
We will never cease to struggle;
Till we're weak and very old.

Underclassmen who're behind us,
There is plenty you can do;
Give to the world the best that's in you
The best will come right back to you.

Let's not disappoint the homefolks,
Who stood by us through the years;
Fight----Fight on careers are waiting,
For Essex we'll shed blood and tears.

Our ambitions are before us,
And the journey we might dread;
God give unto us great courage
To win the victory up ahead!
